'necessary methods'
a special issue on the USSR

BY KRZYSZTOF OSTASZEWSKI TRANSLATOR: WOJTEK STELMASZYNSKI

our inheritors will give us fancy names they will name us once we're history that is once we're gone

our grandchildren and their grandchildren will talk about us as dinosaurs which did not survive they will write beautiful words about us they will form entire sentences about us what days those were what houses they will marvel at our legs our hope for the future and our songs our lovely songs
