

The ISU French & Francophone Studies program proudly presents the

Spring 2020 French Film Series

FEBRUARY 19: Bande de filles (2014) “Sciamma’s latest is an adrenaline shot of socially aware filmmaking that’s an invigorating and perspicacious exploration of adolescence” (CineVue). “Girlhood has a raw emotional urgency and energy” (Guardian).

MARCH 18: Demain (2015) “A globetrotting documentary that’s more focused on solutions than problems, Tomorrow (Demain) provides a comprehensive look at ways in which activists, organizers and everyday citizens are trying to make the world a better, greener, more sustainable place” (The Hollywood Reporter).

APRIL 15: Un sac de billes (2017) Based on a true story, this film tracks “[t]he adventure of a Jewish boy and his brother escaping Nazi persecution in occupied France” (imdb.com) and “makes such a barbaric and bewildering chapter in human history comprehensible for young audiences” (RogerEbert.com).

*STV 101, 7pm, free and open to students enrolled in ISU French classes.
